FOREWORD

I am extremely happy to present the Directory of the diocese 2022 of Chanda in the Diamond Jubilee Year of our mission in this land. Sixty years we have served here tirelessly for the Lord to establish God's kingdom on earth. We have succeeded a great deal in establishing a human welfare society oriented towards kingdom values such as Love, Truth, Justice, Peace etc with a spiritual enlightenment to witness Christ. I thank everyone for your valuable co-operation to this mission in different ways. Incidentally in the year 2022 we are also celebrating the 1950th year of the Martyrdom of St. Thomas, the apostle to India and the heavenly patron of our diocese. May St. Thomas the apostle be our source of inspiration and intercessor in all our missionary endeavours.

Even in this cybernetic world of communication and social media, the need for documentation and archives have not been minimized. A system of filing and archiving is part of any serious establishment. A book of reference or a data-bank in printed form will serve the future generations. Hence is the importance of a directory such as this for a diocese.

I take this opportunity to felicitate all those who have collaborated with this initiative and in a special way to thank Fr. Peter C. Kissan for the editorial work and Fr. Shine Antony Manjaly for technical assistance. I hope this directory will serve everyone as an easy reference to know the diocese, general statistics and contact of missionaries, parishes and institutions. As I thank God in this Diamond Jubilee Year for all God's blessings, I invite everyone to Archdiocese of Ernakulam. Fr. Ephrem served the archdiocese as Assistant Vicar at St. Mary's Forane Church, Kanjoor (1987), St. Mary's Forane Church, Koratty (1988), St. Mary's Cathedral Basilica, Ernakulam (1989) and then as Pro-Vicar at St. Joseph's Church, Madakkal (1990-1992). Later he continued his higher studies at Vidyajyoti College of Theology, Delhi from where he obtained his Master's Degree in Theology.

While Fr. Ephrem was pursuing his higher studies at Vidyajyoti College of Theology, Delhi he served also as Chaplain of Migrant Syro-Malabar Catholics in New Delhi (1992-1995). After the completion of studies at Delhi Fr. Ephrem was appointed Rector of Sant Vianney Gurukul, Minor Seminary of the diocese of Chanda (1995-2002) and in that capacity he served the diocese of Chanda for seven years. He obtained Doctorate in Spiritual Theology from St. Peter's Pontifical Institute of Theology and Philosophy, Bangalore (2002-2004). After having returned to the home diocese, he served as Vicar at Holy Family Church, Thabore (2004-2007). He was visiting professor at St. Charles' Seminary, Nagpur (2000 - 2002) and at St. Thomas Apostolic Seminary, Vadavathoor, Kottayam (2004-2007). Then he served as professor of Systematic Theology Toronto School of Theology (TST) Federated with university of Toronto, Canada and member of Formation Council at St. Augustine's Faculty of Theology, Toronto, Canada.

Pope Francis appointed Fr. Ephrem Nariculam Bishop of Chanda on 31 July 2014. He was ordained bishop by Major Archbishop Mar George Cardinal Alencherry on 24 October 2014.

By the Apostolic Decree Ad Lucem Sancti Evangelii of 31 March 1962 Pope John XXIII erected the Ecclesiastical Unit of Chanda separating three civil districts namely, Wardha, Chanda and Adilabad from the Archdiocese of Nagpur. This new ecclesiastical unit was constituted as an "Ordinate" and was handed over to the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI) of the Syro-Malabar Sui Iuris Church.

Msgr. Januarius Palathuruthy CMI was appointed on 12 June 1962 as its first Ecclesiastical Superior with duties, privileges and faculties of an Apostolic Exarch. Since the official documents from Rome did not arrive on time the handing over of the mission territory did not take place on 3 July, 1962 as was previously agreed up on. However, on 3 July, 1962, on the feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, the first Syro-Malabar Liturgy was celebrated in the military chapel at Pulgaon, Wardha. Later at the Archbishop's House chapel Nagpur on 15 August 1962, the new ecclesiastical unit of Chanda was formally and canonically erected and the new Superior, Msgr. Januarius CMI was installed as its first Ecclesiastical Superior.

Seven CMI Priests, the pioneer missionaries of Chanda, who arrived Ballarpur in 1962 were Frs. late Januarius Palathuruthy (Ordinary designate), late Silas, Joseph Velampampil, late Zacheus, Joseph Manjaly, late Felician and late Eugene.

The CMC Sisters (Thrissur) who came as pioneers were Srs. Rita (+), Teresa (+), Pulcheria (+), Euphemia (+). They took up the management of the military school at Pulgaon in 1962. Another group of CMC Sisters who came from Pala (1963) were sisters They are started their mission in Mandamari.

The "Ordinariate" was raised to the status of an Apostolic Exarchate on 29 July 1968 and Msgr. Januarius CMI was made its Apostolic Exarch. On 26 February 1977 by the Papal Bull "Nostra Ipsorum" Pope Paul VI established Chanda as a diocese and Msgr. Januarius CMI was appointed as its first Bishop. He was ordained Bishop at Ballarpur on 03 May 1977.

Bishop Januarius CMI retired on 15 May 1990 and Fr. Antony Moozhikuzhy CMI was appointed as the Administrator until Bp. Vijay Anand Nedumpuram CMI took charge on 03 July 1990.

Present Diocese of Chanda comprises the civil districts of Wardha, Chandrapur (Chanda) and Gadchiroli (new district as a result of bifurcation of Chandrapur district in 1982) in Maharashtra State.

The diocese of Chanda was bifurcated and the Diocese of Adilabad was formed on 16 July, 1999 with the civil district of Adilabad in Andhra Pradesh (now Telangana) and Fr. Joseph Kunnath CMI was appointed as its first bishop. On 6 Oct. 1999 was his Episcopal ordination at Mandamari and he was installed on the same day.

Bp. Ephrem Nariculam became the third bishop of the diocese of Chanda on 24 October 2014.

IV. BISHOP'S HOME & PASTORAL CENTRE

1. BISHOP'S HOME (1962)

Bishop's Home, the residence of the Bishop of Chanda is situated at Ballarpur which is 16 kms south of District Head quarters, Chandrapur. Balharshah is said to have been founded by the Gond King Khandkya Bellal Sah (1437-62). Later Balharshah was renamed as Ballarpur and presently the railway station retains the name Balharshah. Since the establishment of the "Ordinariate of Chanda" in 1962, Bishop Januarius CMI used the parish presbytery behind the Cathedral as the headquarters. Even after the Chanda Mission was raised to the status of a diocese in 1977, he continued to use the same building as his residence and chanery. His successor Bishop Vijay Anand CMI has his residence and chanery in the nearby building in the same campus. Sisters of various Congregations rendered their service at the diocesan headquarters; SHSp (1989-1991) SJB (1991-1994), CMC (1994-1999), DM (1999-2003). SABS Sisters also rendered their service at Bishop's home campus looking after the Kalabhavan. In the year 2010 FDSHJ Congregation started their convent in Bishops home campus. They are rendering their service at Vianney Jubilee School and Cathedral. An independent convent building (Vianney Convent, FDSHJ) was constructed in the campus in 2015.

few years the Electrolux factory itself was closed down. Consequently the school and the convent in that colony were closed down. The sisters, however, bought some land in Warora in 1994 and started a school there.

VII. VII. FORMATION HOUSES

1. Sant Vianney Gurukul

Rector : Fr. Binu Muthalakuzhiyil

Chanda had no diocesan minor seminary until 1991. The candidates for diocesan priesthood were sent to other seminaries. The dream to establish a diocesan minor seminary was fulfilled on 03 July 1991 when 09 candidates from diocese itself were recruited to the St. Thomas Minor Seminary. Since there was no building for the minor seminary, the first batch finished their first year course at different stations, namely Ballarpur, Shengaon in MS and Utnoor, Sirpur Kaghaznagar in AP. Later in 1992, Balbhavan at Ballarpur was shifted to Kalmana village to give way to the minor seminary. Fr. George Pullankav CMI was the first Rector of the minor seminary (1991-93). He was replaced by Fr. K.D Chacko (1993-95). Fr. Ephrem Nariculam from the Archdiocese of Ernakulam succeeded as Rector (1995-2002). Fr. Thomas Punchayil took charge as Rector on 01 April 2002. In June 2000 the Seminary was shifted to the present campus with the new name Sant Vianney Gurukul at New Daheli Village, which is 6km. away from Bishop's Home. Last batch of students from Adilabad Diocese completed the course in 2002-2003.
